

Press Release

Value of securities held in dematerialized form at NSDL crosses US $ 4 Trillion

National Securities Depository Limited (NSDL), one of the largest central securities depository in the world, has crossed a historic milestone of ₹300 lakh crore (US $ 4 Trillion) in the value of assets held in demat accounts. The market share of NSDL in value of demat assets is more than 89%. In last 11 months, value of assets held in demat accounts in NSDL has increased by ₹100 lakh crore.

About NSDL

NSDL (www.nsdl.co.in) is India's first and largest securities depository. It has played a key role in transforming the Indian securities market by facilitating holding and settlement of securities in dematerialised form. NSDL demat accounts are located in more than 99% of pin codes in the country reflecting the wide reach of NSDL depository.

Date: October 22, 2021

Place: Mumbai

Media Contact

Vikas Kumar Jain | email: vikask@nsdl.co.in | Mobile No. +91 9167464206

.....

Connect with us

Website: www.nsdl.co.in

